

Come Hell or High Water

Sunday 22nd December 2019, 3-6pm

Dear friends,

Come Hell or High Water personally invites you to a monthly event that takes place at low tide.

Please join our pocket of resistance on the banks of the River Thames by Canary Wharf, a place that exists between water and land, private and public space, wealth and poverty, past and present, and an unknowable future. Where the tide slowly recedes, and a small foreshore is temporarily exposed, there will be a series of performances.

We are between. Please join us.

Hayley, Anne, George and Sarah

ON: Sunday 22nd December 2019, 3-6pm: sunset on this winter solstice, as the sun hovers between its furthest point from us, over the Tropic of Capricorn, and its return.
